In 2000, Dr. Corber purchased Davisville Pet Clinic and that same year joined the ranks of a small number of veterinarians in Canada becoming a Diplomate of the American Board of Veterinary Practitioners, specializing in general Canine and Feline Practice.
From 2004 to 2014, Dr. Al was part of a group of 7 veterinarians owning 6 hospitals across Ontario in the Ontario Veterinary Group. He then continued to be the VCA medical director while also working in the industry world of veterinary medicine until October of this year, when he made the decision to join the wonderful team at Royal Canin full time.
Dr. Al enjoys all aspects of veterinary medicine but he is particularly interested in endocrinology, gastrointestinal diseases and dentistry. Dr. Al recognizes the importance of excellent client communication and has always been passionate about wishing to share the information and experience he has been blessed to learn with his colleagues, students and clients. He fully believes that we get so much more growth from giving of ourselves to those around us.
Dr. Al is a past chair and long standing member of the Veterinary Emergency Clinic board in Toronto, a two-time past president of the Toronto Academy of Veterinary Medicine and has written questions for the NAVLE – the licensing examination for graduating veterinarians across North America - for over ten years. He is part of the FearFree practice certification for Canadian veterinary practices and is a past member of the College of Veterinarians of Ontario Complaints Committee.
Outside of veterinary medicine his interests and joys include cycling, spinning, skiing, hockey, baseball, basketball, food and of course his partner Keren, two adult children Emma and Warren as well as his Black Lab Teva and his cat Marley.
